WHEREAS the creation of a revenue source through a tax on the sale of firearms and ammunition would provide public benefits for residents of Tacoma related to gun violence by providing a portion of the funds needed for programs that promote public safety, prevent gun violence, and address, in part, the cost of gun violence in the City, and

WHEREAS the revenue generated from this tax will be used to offset a portion of the impact and cost that gun violence has on our community by being directed toward programs that promote public safety, prevent gun violence, target youth and young adult violence prevention, and other programs intended to reduce violence and promote community healing, and

WHEREAS the proposed tax would be based on an ordinance passed in the City of Seattle, which has been upheld by the Washington State Supreme Court, and constitutes a tax of $25.00 per firearm sold at retail; $0.02 per round of ammunition .22 caliber or less; and $0.05 per round of other ammunition sold at retail, and

WHEREAS, further, the City Council is directing the City Manager, within 75 calendar days of the date of this ordinance, to bring recommendations to the City Council that:

(1) assist and empower our local communities faced with gun violence, potentially in partnership with other agencies and entities, to help them heal from the damage caused by gun violence in our community, and to develop strategies together to further reduce youth and young adult gun violence;

1 (2) make recommendations for programming with youth and young adults, 2 ages 18-30, to reduce gun violence with concepts such as community court or 3 restorative justice and gang prevention and gang violence reduction for individuals 4 not in a felony situation, after consultation with partners, and 5 (3) any other recommendations to reduce gun violence in our community, 6 7 including state and federal legislative priorities and other measures to be led locally 8 to improve gun safety and ensure that guns do not get into the wrong hands, and 9 WHEREAS this proposed tax, if adopted, would go into effect January 1, 10 2020; Now, Therefore, 11 BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF TACOMA: 12 13 Section 1. That the City finds and declares that gun violence directly affects 14 the City and its residents. Therefore, the City intends to exercise its taxing 15 authority, as granted by the Washington State Constitution, as authorized by the 16 Washington State Legislature, and as affirmed by the Washington State Supreme 17 Court in Watson et al v. City of Seattle, 189 Wn.2d 149 (2017), to raise general 18 19 revenue for the City and to use that revenue to provide broad-based public benefits 20 for the residents of Tacoma related to gun violence by funding programs that 21 promote public safety, prevent gun violence, target youth and young adult violence 22 prevention, and other programs intended to reduce violence and promote 23 community healing and address, in part, the cost of gun violence in the City. 24 25 Section 2. That Subtitle 6A of the Tacoma Municipal Code is hereby 26 amended by the addition thereof of a new Chapter 6A.120, to be known and designated as "Firearms and Ammunition Tax," to read as set forth in the attached Exhibit "A."

Section 3. That the taxes authorized in Section 2 of this ordinance shall become effective January 1, 2020.

Section 4. That the City Manager is hereby directed, within 75 calendar days of the date of this ordinance, to bring recommendations to the City Council that:

(1) assist and empower our local communities faced with gun violence, potentially in partnership with other agencies and entities, to help them heal from
 the damage caused by gun violence in our community, and to develop strategies
 together to further reduce youth and young adult gun violence;

(2) make recommendations for programming with youth and young adults, ages 18-30, to reduce gun violence with concepts such as community court or restorative justice and gang prevention and gang violence reduction for individuals not in a felony situation, after consultation with partners; and
