Topic	LFCI	Nov 18 Study Session Discussion	Proposed Ordinance	Rationale
Revising LFCI exemptions from cold weather and school year eviction defense	- Owner or family to occupy the unit - Condemnation or uninhabitable - Desire for roommate to vacate - Sexual harassment by tenant - The tenant’s failure to comply with a three day or ten day notice to vacate for a drug-related activity nuisance pursuant to chapter 7.43 RCW; - Maintenance of an unlawful business or conduct pursuant to RCW 59.12.030(5); or - Because the tenant’s conduct has a substantial detrimental impact on, or constitutes an imminent threat to, the health or safety of other tenants in the rental building or the owner.	Align with Seattle’s exemptions: - Owner or family to occupy the unit - Landlord receives a notice of violation for renting an unpermitted unit and must discontinue use.* - Landlord must reduce the number of tenants in a unit after receiving notice from the City.* - Landlord must discontinue renting a unit that is deemed unsafe or uninhabitable by emergency order from the City.* - Stop sharing unit (roommate), terminate tenancy in an ADU to the housing unit in which the owner resides, terminate tenancy in a single-family dwelling when owner resides in ADU on the same lot. - Criminal activity on the premises, or on the property or public right-of-way: 1. Drug-related activity that would constitute a violation of chapters 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, or 2. Activity that is a crime under the laws of this state, but only if the activity substantially affects the health or safety of other tenants or the owner. - Tenant's failure to comply with a three day notice to vacate for a drug-related activity nuisance pursuant to chapter 7.43 RCW, and - Maintenance of an unlawful business or conduct pursuant to RCW 59.12.030(5).	The evictions in Section 1.100.060 does not apply and prevent an eviction if the reason for termination of the tenancy is due to: 1. the conditions described in TMC sections 1.95.070.D.7.c, relating to waste, nuisance, and illegal activity; 1.95.070.D.7.d, relating to owner or family to occupy the unit; 1.95.070.D.7.h relating to the unit being condemned or uninhabitable; 1.95.070.D.7.i, related to desire for a roommate to vacate; or 1.95.070.D.7.p, related to sexual harassment by tenant. 2. The owner seeks to terminate the tenancy of a tenant of an accessory dwelling unit that is accessory to the housing unit in which the owner resides, or seeks to terminate the tenancy of a tenant in a single-family dwelling unit and the owner resides in an accessory dwelling unit on the same lot.	Staff reviewed Seattle’s code and found RHC equivalents to simplify most of the items. The Ordinance language covers the same scope as what was presented on Nov 18.
Relocation assistance	The LFCI currently outlines requirements for relocation assistance in “1.100.050 Section 5. Landlords must give advanced	In addition to what is outlined in 1.100.050 Section 5 , CM Rumbaugh’s proposal would add a relocation assistance requirement to above exemptions marked with an *. State law requires larger amounts of relocation assistance for the same situations, and is reflected in the Ordinance.
Exemptions to the LFCI for low-income housing providers	The LFCI does not offer exemptions based on type of housing provider.	Adds an exemption for: Any dwelling unit owned or managed by the Tacoma Housing Authority or held as deed-restricted affordable housing. “Deed restricted affordable housing” means real estate that is required to be used as affordable housing for a period of time of at least thirty (30) years pursuant to a restrictive covenant or similar enforceable, recorded instrument, with income targets that are no higher than 80 percent of area median income.	Adds definition for “Nonprofit entity” by matching RCW 84.36.560. Exempts the following from the LFCI: - Any dwelling unit owned or managed by the Tacoma Housing Authority; or - Any dwelling unit owned or managed by a nonprofit entity and held as deed-restricted affordable housing. Landlords exempt as described above must comply with tenant protection laws before evicting a tenant.	Low-income housing providers have shared data on the extreme impact the LFCI has had on their ability to provide low-income housing options to those who need it most.
Undue and significant economic hardship definition	5. A landlord may seek a court order allowing a particular eviction or exempting them from a provision of this chapter if they can show that a provision of this chapter, if fully enforced, would constitute either (a) an undue and significant economic hardship, or (b) a takings under the United States or Washington State constitutions, or (c) that the chapter as applied is preempted by federal or state law.	Undue hardship must be based on an individualized assessment of current circumstances that show how a specific unit’s unpaid rent would cause significant difficulty to its owner. A determination of undue hardship should be based on several factors, including: - The amount of unpaid rent and underlying cost of maintaining the unit, such as required mortgage payments, utilities, and any other expenses the landlord is obligated to pay associated with the unit. - The overall financial resources of the owner; the number of units owned by the landlord; type and location of facilities of the owner (if the facility involved in renting the unit is part of a larger entity); the effect on the owner’s expenses and resources.	Same as discussed at 11/18 study session.	“An undue and significant economic hardship” is very vague and hard to administer for Court Commissioners.

		Personal hardship the owner may be experiencing that could impact their finances. This may include, but is not limited to, hardship caused by illness or accident, unemployment, family situation such as divorce, or job relocation.
Undue and significant economic hardship – allow evictions in order to sell unit	The LFCI does not allow a landlord to evict in order to sell a unit.	Clarify that significant economic hardship includes if an owner determines they need to sell the unit (90-day notice). The owner must make reasonable attempts to sell the dwelling within 30 days after the tenant has vacated, including, at a minimum, listing it for sale at a reasonable price. Provides guidelines on rebuttable presumptions that the owner did not intend to sell.	The intent is the same as what was discussed at the Nov. 18 study session – for ease and clarity this is listed under “Student/school-year and cold weather eviction defense—exceptions”.	Without the opportunity to sell their unit landlords assume all the risk of maintaining what could potentially be a costly unit.
Cold weather eviction defense	Landlords may not carry out an eviction during cold weather—between November 1 and April 1.	Match Seattle winter eviction protection . Changes include: - Applies to eligible tenants from December 1 - March 1 - Creates a defense for tenant households at or below 80% of AMI (area median income) during this period - Exempts Landlords with ownership interest in 4 units or less within the City limit.	Altered language: - Applies to eligible tenants from November 15 - March 15 - Creates a defense for tenant households at or below 120% of AMI (area median income) during this period - Exempts Landlords with ownership interest in 4 units or less within the City limit.	This is a well-balanced approach that preserves housing for 120% AMI or less without overburdening small landlords.
Late fees	Any fee or charge for late payment of rent exceeding $10.00 per month.	Remove and defer to RHC: Limits the amount of late fee the landlord to 1.5% of the monthly rent and cannot exceed $75 max per month	Remove and defer to edited RHC: Limits the amount of late fee the landlord to 1.5% of the monthly rent	Updating RHC prevents two codes from having conflicting information. The $75 limit was taken out because it was causing confusion. This clarifies it is 1.5% of monthly rent, not $75. The $75 cap was seen as unnecessary, because it would only apply if there was $5,000 in monthly rent, and someone who can afford that likely could afford the late fee.
Notice of rent increase	Requires two written notices to increase rent: 1st notice between	Remove and defer to RHC: Requires a 120-day written notice before increasing rent. 	210-180 days. 2nd notice between 120-90 days.			information. LFCI process is confusing and burdensome. One 180 notice is 90s more than state law requires.
Technical changes and clarifications		Researching requested technical changes to offer greater legal clarity.	Technical changes are incorporated throughout the document, including aligning definitions with state law and the RHC.	Internal and external stakeholders suggested technical changes that offer greater legal clarity.

The Community, Vitality, and Safety Committee’s 2026 workplan will include the following topics stakeholders requested the City Council consider:

- Bundle LFCI into RHC so there is one code where constituents can find all landlord-tenant items. Revisit Nov. 6 CVS conversation on:
 - Review exemptions to eviction defenses for when tenants damage the unit
 - School year eviction defense
- Tenant rights outreach and education
- Landlord education and licensing requirements
- Penalties and enforcement for predatory landlords
- Health & safety conditions in units
- Accessible income restricted housing options
- Mediation or community court-like programs to assist with landlord/tenant conflicts
- Tools for renters to end a lease early should they lose income
- Rental assistance
- Landlord insurance for damaged units and unpaid rent

SUBSTITUTE ORDINANCE NO. 29086

1 BY REQUEST OF COUNCIL MEMBER DIAZ

2 AN ORDINANCE relating to rental housing; amending Chapters 1.95 and 1.100
3 of the Municipal Code, relating to the Rental Housing Code and Landlord
4 Fairness Code Initiative, by amending various sections, to implement 5 updates relating to landlord-tenant issues as recommended by the 6 Community Vitality and Safety Committee, effective January 1, 2026.

7 WHEREAS the 2023 Landlord Fairness Code Initiative (“LFCI”), also 8 known as Measure 1, is an initiative petition that Tacoma voters passed as a 9 ballot measure in the November 2023 General Election, which went into effect 10 on December 8, 2023, and

11 WHEREAS the LFCI introduced new requirements and rules for landlords
12 and tenants in the City, and since the LFCI went into effect, community members 13 have shared positive and negative feedback about its impacts in the City, and

14 WHEREAS the LFCI was designed to protect families, promote community, 15 stabilize the rental market, and reduce homelessness, and it is the City’s intent to 16 continue its long-term commitment to maintain vibrant and diverse neighborhoods 17 within the City, and

18 WHEREAS the regulations contained in the LFCI were designed to balance 19 the needs of the landlord, tenant, and City while creating a partnership to ensure 20 safe, healthy, and thriving rental housing in the City, and providing housing for 21 City residents directly impacts quality of life at the most basic level and therefore 22 requires regulations to ensure that it is equitably undertaken, and 23
25
26

WHEREAS eviction has equity impacts, and according to the National Low Income Housing Coalition, children represented more than 40 percent of all individuals who face eviction throughout the course of a year, and

WHEREAS the most at risk of eviction are Black renters, who make up less than a fifth of renters across the country but accounted for more than half of evictions, and

WHEREAS the data revealed that one in five Black renters had eviction cases filed against them and that one in 10 were evicted, while in contrast, just one in 24 White renters were filed against, and one in 40 were evicted; rates of both filings and evictions for Hispanic and Asian renters were comparable to those of White renters, and

WHEREAS access to low-income housing also is an equity issue, and in the City, people of color utilize low-income housing options at a higher rate: comparing racial demographics, the Tacoma Housing Authority serves a higher proportion of Black or African American (9.4 percent and 28.3 percent, respectively) and Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander households (1.0 percent and 2.2 percent), and

WHEREAS when stakeholders were asked if the LFCI succeeded at its goal to balance the needs of the landlord, tenant, and City while creating a partnership to ensure safe, healthy, and thriving rental housing in the City, key themes emerged: the LFCI is destabilizing the budget of low-income housing providers; there has been an increase to the amount of damage to units; landlords are screening tenants more thoroughly, reducing access to the most at-need tenants and leaving units unoccupied longer between tenants; and landlords with fewer units are disproportionately burdened by the fiscal impacts of rent being unpaid for long stretches of time, and

WHEREAS the Community Vitality and Safety Committee (“CVS”) recommended a narrow range of changes to the LFCI targeting these issues in order to protect the low-income housing units currently in the City and to allow for development of more of this critical housing, and to balance the impacts of the LFCI on landlords with few units, and

WHEREAS CVS’s 2026 workplan will include the following topics stakeholders requested the City Council consider:

(1) Bundling the LFCI into the Rental Housing Code (“RHC”) so there is one code regulating landlord-tenant items; during this process, CVS will renew conversation on exemptions to eviction defenses for when tenants damage the unit, and the school year eviction defense;

- (2) Tenant rights outreach and education;
- (3) Landlord education and licensing requirements;
- (4) Penalties and enforcement for predatory landlords;
- (5) Health and safety conditions in units;
- (6) Accessible income restricted housing options;
- (7) Mediation or community court-like programs to assist with landlord/tenant conflicts;

(8) Tools for renters to end a lease early should they lose income;

(9) Rental assistance; and

(10) Landlord insurance for damaged units and unpaid rent, and

WHEREAS this ordinance clarifies and makes changes to the RHC to streamline several areas, including increasing the notice to increase rent requirement from 120 to 180 days, deleting the $75.00 maximum late for unpaid rent, and clarifying the just cause eviction related to when an owner seeks to sell the dwelling unit, and

WHEREAS this ordinance amends Chapters 1.95 and 1.100 to further the goals of the RHC and LFCI: to protect families, promote community, stabilize the rental market, and reduce homelessness; to continue its long-term commitment to maintain vibrant and diverse neighborhoods within the City; and to balance the needs of the landlord, tenant, and City while creating a partnership to ensure safe, healthy, and thriving rental housing in the City; Now, Therefore,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF TACOMA:

Section 1. That the City Council hereby adopts the Recitals of this Ordinance as its formal legislative findings.

Section 2. That Chapter 1.95 of the Municipal Code, entitled "Rental Housing Code", is hereby amended, as set forth in the attached Exhibit "A," with an effective date of January 1, 2026.

Section 3. That Chapter 1.100 of the Municipal Code, entitled "Landlord Fairness Code Initiative", is hereby amended, as set forth in the attached Exhibit "B," with an effective date of January 1, 2026.

limited to, the correction of scrivener's/clerical errors, references, ordinance numbering, section/subsection numbers, and any references thereto.

1.95.060 Notice to increase rent requirements.

A landlord may not increase rent except in accordance with this section.

A. A landlord is required to provide at least ~~120~~ 180 days' written notice, whenever the periodic or monthly housing costs to be charged a tenant will increase by any amount charged the same tenant for the same housing unit, except as provided by RCW 59.18.140(3)(b) as it exists or is hereinafter amended for subsidized tenancies and for deed-restricted affordable housing. For purposes of this subsection "deed restricted affordable housing" means real estate that is required to be used as affordable housing for a period of time of at least thirty (30) years pursuant to a restrictive covenant or similar enforceable, recorded instrument, with income targets that are no higher than 80 percent of area median income.

B. Any notice of rent increase shall specify the percentage of the rent increase, the amount of the new rent, and the date on which the increase becomes effective.

C. Any notice of a rent increase shall be served in accordance with RCW 59.12.040, Service of notice - Proof of service, as it exists or as may be amended.

D. A landlord is required to provide a copy of a resource summary as outlined in TMC 1.95.030, when the landlord provides a tenant a notice to increase rent.

E. No landlord shall issue a notice to increase rent unless the landlord has complied with the City business license requirements pursuant to TMC 6B, including having an annual business license, paying the license fee amounts, registering each dwelling unit, and certifying that each dwelling unit complies with RCW 59.18.060, as it exists or is hereinafter amended, and does not present conditions that endanger or impair health and safety of tenants.

1.95.065 Late Fees.

A. Any fees for late payment of rent shall be limited to 1.5 percent of the unpaid monthly rent, ~~and not to exceed $75.00 per unpaid monthly rent.~~ No other fees may be charged for late payment of rent, including for the service of any notice required under state law, or any legal costs, including court costs and attorneys' fees. Any rental agreement provision providing for such fees shall be deemed void. This section shall not apply to or limit decisions, orders, and rulings of courts of competent jurisdiction.

B. A landlord is required to provide the tenant with at least a quarterly written notice outlining late fees due and how the tenant can come into compliance with paying amounts due.

C. Notice of late fees must include detailed information regarding the month(s) for which a late fee is owed and a copy of an updated rent ledger and/or information to obtain updated information on online rent portal.

D. Any landlord who violates this section shall not be permitted to deduct any late fees from a tenant's security deposit or report the money owed to prospective landlord of the tenant.

E. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude the landlord from proceeding against a tenant to recover sums in the amount of the tenant's late fees for which the tenant is responsible together with reasonable attorneys' fees.

F. No late fees may be assessed on any non-rent charges.

1.95.070 Notice to vacate requirements.

A. The notice requirements provided in this subsection apply when premises are rented with monthly or other periodic tenancy and apply before the expiration of a fixed-term lease, unless the lease automatically converts to a month-to-month or periodic tenancy at the end of its expiration.

B. No landlord shall issue a notice to vacate unless the landlord has complied with the City business license requirements pursuant to TMC 6B, including having an annual business license, paying the license fee amounts, registering each dwelling unit, and certifying that each dwelling unit complies with RCW 59.18.060, as it exists or is hereinafter amended, and does not present conditions that endanger or impair health and safety of tenants.

C. Requirement for notice to tenant when tenant displaced.

When a tenant is to be displaced, a landlord may only terminate the tenancy by providing a tenant with written notice of at least 120 days preceding the end of the month or period of tenancy. For any notice provided under this subsection, the landlord shall also serve at the same time the Tenant Relocation Information Packet and further comply with the Tenant Relocation Assistance requirements in TMC 1.95.080.B.

D. Requirement for notice to tenant to terminate tenancy.

Unless provided otherwise under subsection C above, termination of tenancy must comply with RCW 59.18.650, as it currently exists or hereinafter amended, and as outlined in this subsection.

1. A landlord may not evict a tenant, refuse to continue a tenancy, or end a periodic tenancy except for the causes enumerated in subsection (7) below and as otherwise provided in this subsection.

2. If a landlord and tenant enter into a rental agreement that provides for the tenancy to continue for an indefinite period on a month-to-month or periodic basis after the agreement expires, the landlord may not end the tenancy except for the causes enumerated in subsection (7) below; however, a landlord may end such a tenancy at the end of the initial period of the rental agreement without cause only if:

a. At the inception of the tenancy, the landlord and tenant entered into a rental agreement between six and 12 months; and

b. The landlord has provided the tenant before the end of the initial lease period at least 60 days' advance written notice ending the tenancy, served in a manner consistent with RCW 59.12.040.

3. If a landlord and tenant enter into a rental agreement for a specified period in which the tenancy by the terms of the rental agreement does not continue for an indefinite period on a month-to-month or periodic basis after the end of the specified period, the landlord may end such a tenancy without cause upon expiration of the specified period only if:

1 a. At the inception of the tenancy, the landlord and tenant entered into a rental agreement of 12 months or 2 more for a specified period, or the landlord and tenant have continuously and without interruption entered
3 into successive rental agreements of six months or more for a specified period since the inception of the 4 tenancy;

5 b. The landlord has provided the tenant before the end of the specified period at least 60 days' advance
6 written notice that the tenancy will be deemed expired at the end of such specified period, served in a 7 manner consistent with RCW 59.12.040; and

8 c. The tenancy has not been for an indefinite period on a month-to-month or periodic basis at any point 9 since the inception of the tenancy.

10 4. For all other tenancies of a specified period not covered under (2) or (3) of this subsection, and for 11 tenancies of an indefinite period on a month-to-month or periodic basis, a landlord may not end the 12 tenancy except for the causes enumerated in subsection (7) below. Upon the end date of the tenancy of a 13 specified period, the tenancy becomes a month-to-month tenancy.

14 5. Nothing prohibits a landlord and tenant from entering into subsequent lease agreements that are in 15 compliance with the requirements in subsection (7) below.

16 6. A tenant may end a tenancy for a specified time by providing notice in writing not less than 20 days 17 prior to the ending date of the specified time.

18 7. The following reasons listed in this subsection constitute cause pursuant to subsection (1) of this 19 section:

20 a. When a tenant defaults in rent as outlined in RCW 59.18.650(2)(a), as it currently exists or is 21 hereinafter amended, the landlord may serve a 14 day comply or vacate notice.

22 b. When a tenant substantially breaches a material lease or a tenant obligation as imposed by law outlined
23 in RCW 59.18.650(2)(b), as it currently exists or is hereinafter amended, the landlord may serve a 10 day 24 comply or vacate notice.

25 c. When a tenant received at least three days' notice to quit after committing waste, nuisance, illegal 26 activity, or other repeated and unreasonable interference of the use and enjoyment of the premises as outlined in RCW 59.18.650.2(c), as it currently exists or is hereinafter amended, the landlord may serve a 3 day notice to vacate.

d. When the owner or immediate family member wants to occupy the unit as their primary residence, as outlined in RCW 59.18.650(2)(d), as it currently exists or is hereinafter amended, provided that there is a rebuttable presumption that the owner did not act in good faith if the owner or immediate family fails to occupy the unit as a principal residence for at least 60 consecutive days during the 90 days immediately after the tenant vacated the unit pursuant to a notice to vacate using this subsection as the cause for the lease ending, the landlord may serve a 90 day notice to vacate.

e. When the owner elects to sell the dwelling unit, as outlined in RCW 59.18.650(2)(e), as it currently exists or is hereinafter amended, the landlord may serve a 90 day notice to vacate. An owner "elects to sell" when the owner makes reasonable attempts to sell the dwelling within 30 days after the tenant has vacated, including, at a minimum, listing it for sale at a reasonable price. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the owner did not intend to sell the unit if:

(1) Within 30 days after the tenant has vacated, the owner does not list the single-family dwelling unit for sale at a reasonable price, or

(2) Within 90 days after the date the tenant vacated or the date the property was listed for sale, whichever is later, the owner withdraws the rental unit from the market, rents the unit to someone other than the former tenant, or otherwise indicates that the owner does not intend to sell the unit.

f. When the tenant continues in possession of the premises after the landlord serves the tenant a 120-day advance written notice pursuant to RCW 59.18.200(2)(c) as outlined in RCW 59.18.650(2)(f).

1 g. When the tenant continues in possession after the owner elects to withdraw the premises to pursue a conversion pursuant to RCW 64.34.440 or 64.90.655, as outlined in RCW 59.18.650(2)(g), and the landlord served a 120 day advanced written notice.

2 h. When the dwelling unit has been condemned or deemed uninhabitable by code enforcement, as outlined in TMC 2.01 and RCW 59.18.650(2)(h), as it currently exists or is hereinafter amended, the landlord must serve a 30 day notice to vacate.

3 i. When the owner or lessor wants a roommate to vacate, as outlined in RCW 59.18.650(2)(i), as it 4 currently exists or is hereinafter amended, the landlord must serve a 20 day notice to vacate; except when the landlord rents to four or more tenants in the same dwelling unit.

5 j. When a tenant is part of a transitional housing program that has expired, as outlined in RCW 6 59.18.650(2)(j), as it currently exists or is hereinafter amended, the landlord must serve a 30 day notice to vacate.

7 k. When he or she does not comply with signing a new rental agreement, as outlined in RCW
8 59.18.650(2)(k), as it currently exists or is hereinafter amended, the landlord must serve a 30 day notice to vacate.

9 l. When a tenant makes intentional, knowing, and material misrepresentations or omissions to their application at the inception of the tenancy, as outlined in RCW 59.18.650(2)(l), as it currently exists or is 10 hereinafter amended, the landlord must serve a 30 day notice to vacate.

11 m. When the owner has an economic or business reason, as outlined in RCW 59.18.650(2)(m), as it currently exists or is hereinafter amended, the landlord must serve a 60 day notice to vacate.

12 n. When a tenant has committed four or more substantial breaches of rental period or lease agreement within the preceding 12-month period, as outlined in RCW 59.18.650(2)(n), as it currently exists or is 13 hereinafter amended, the landlord must serve a 60 day notice to vacate.

14 o. When a tenant does not comply with registering or disclosing the tenant is a sex offender at the time of application, as outlined in RCW 59.18.650(2)(o), as it currently exists or is hereinafter amended, the landlord must serve a 60 day notice to vacate.

15 p. When a tenant has made unwanted sexual advances or other acts of sexual harassment directed at the 16 property owner, property manager, property employee, or another tenant, as outlined in RCW
59.18.650(2)(p), as it currently exists or is hereinafter amended, the landlord must serve a 20-day notice
17 to vacate.

18 q. When a tenant does not comply with applying or signing a rental agreement after the original tenant has vacated the unit, as outlined in RCW 59.18.650(3) as it currently exists or is hereinafter amended, the landlord must serve the tenant with a 30 day notice to apply or vacate.

19 E. Notice requirements, generally.

20 1. Notices provided in this section shall comply with RCW 59.12.040, as it exists or as hereinafter amended.

21 2. For any notice provided under this subsection, the landlord shall require the tenant to vacate the 22 dwelling unit at the end of the month or period of tenancy.

23 3. The notice shall list the name of the tenant and the dwelling unit number and stated reason for or condition(s) justifying the termination of tenancy.

24 4. Proof of any service under this section must be made by the affidavit or declaration of the person providing the notice. When a copy of the notice is sent through the mail as provided in this section, 25 service shall be deemed complete when such copy is deposited in the United States mail.

26 F. Tenant meeting.

1 A tenant who receives a 120-day notice as provided herein may request an in person meeting with the 2 landlord to discuss the upcoming termination. If such request is made, the landlord shall schedule, notify 3 tenants in writing, and hold such a meeting within 20 days of such request, at a time and location
4 reasonably convenient for the parties. A landlord may schedule and hold one meeting for multiple tenants 5 and requests. A landlord holding such meeting at a reasonable time and location shall meet the 6 requirements herein, regardless of whether the impacted tenants attend.

7 G. The notices required herein do not apply when:

8 A landlord is required to repair the dwelling unit due to a violation of the Minimum Building and 9 Structures Code, TMC 2.01.050, and is found to be either derelict.

a. require landlords to comply with tenant protection laws before raising rent or evicting a tenant;

b. prohibit unfair or excessive fees;

c. require landlords to provide notice of rent increases and pay relocation assistance when significant rent increases require tenants to relocate;

1. A dwelling unit is exempted from Chapter 1.100 of the Tacoma Municipal Code if it is owned or managed by:

a. the Tacoma Housing Authority; or

b. A nonprofit entity, and the dwelling unit is held as deed-restricted affordable housing.

2. Notwithstanding subsection 1, landlords exempt under subsection 1 above must comply with tenant protection laws before evicting a tenant.

3. The exemption outlined in subsection 1 shall only apply 30 days after a landlord notifies their tenants in writing. For any rental agreement put in place after January 1, 2026, the landlord must include information about this exemption in any Rental Agreement for applicable dwelling units.

1.100.020 ~~Section 2.~~ Adopting Landlord Fairness Code.

Through this initiative, the people of the City of Tacoma adopt the following Landlord Fairness Code to protect tenants in our City, as further outlined in this initiative:

1. Landlords must comply with tenant protection laws before raising rent or evicting a tenant.

2. Landlords must not charge unfair or excessive fees.

3. Landlords must give advanced notice of rent increases and pay relocation assistance when significant rent increases require tenants to relocate.

4. Landlords are prohibited from carrying out student/school-year evictions, cold-weather evictions, and evictions based upon a tenant's status as a servicemember, first responder, senior, family member, health care provider, or educator.

5. It shall be a defense to eviction for a landlord to be in violation of the Landlord Fairness Code as set forth herein.

1.100.030 ~~Section 3.~~ Landlords must comply with tenant protection laws.

1. Landlords must comply with all tenant protection laws. Landlords in violation of such laws may not increase rent or evict a tenant, as provided in this section.

2. A landlord shall be prohibited from increasing a tenant's rent if:

a. the landlord is determined to be in violation of tenant protection laws related to health and safety, according to the procedures detailed in TMC 2.01.050; or

b. the dwelling unit has defective conditions making the dwelling unit uninhabitable, if a request for repairs to make the dwelling unit habitable has not been resolved, or the landlord is otherwise in violation of RCW 59.18.060, as it exists or may be amended. If the tenant believes the dwelling unit has defective conditions making the unit uninhabitable or in violation of RCW 59.18.060, the tenant shall notify the landlord in writing as required by RCW 59.18.070, specifying the premises involved; the owner's name, if known; and the nature of the defective condition before the effective date listed in the notice of rent increase. Once such notice of defective condition is provided, the landlord must remedy the defective condition and provide notice of such remedy to the tenant and the City before rent may be increased.

3. It shall be a defense against eviction that the landlord is, at time of eviction, in violation of tenant protection laws related to health and safety, pursuant to the procedures set forth in paragraph 2 of this section.

1.100.040 ~~Section 4.~~—Landlords must not charge unfair or excessive fees.

1. Landlords are prohibited from charging tenants “unfair or excessive fees.” As used in this section, “unfair or excessive fees” means any of the following:

- a. Any rental application fees not complying with RCW 59.18.257.
- b. Any non-refundable fee charged at the beginning of the tenancy, including but not limited to a fee to hold a unit prior to the tenant taking possession, except as specifically allowed in this section or that is specifically allowed under state law.
- c. A pet damage deposit exceeding 25% of one month’s rent or where the landlord may retain any part of the pet deposit exceeding the actual costs of repairing the pet damage.
- d. Move-in fees that in total exceed the first month’s rent. If a tenant pays a portion of rent and the remainder is covered by a subsidy, “first month’s rent” includes both the tenant’s payment and subsidy.

~~e. Any fee or charge for late payment of rent exceeding $10.00 per month or that are paid or charged after the end of the tenancy, except as required by State or Federal law.~~

2. Any rental agreement shall be deemed void to the extent it requires payment of fees prohibited by this section. This section shall not apply to or limit decisions, orders, and rulings of courts of competent jurisdiction.

1.100.050 ~~Section 5.~~—Landlords must give advanced notice of rent increases and pay ~~relocation assistance~~ when significant rent increases require tenants to relocate and for unlawful buildings.

~~1. As a precondition to raising rent, a landlord must provide the tenant with two notices of the rent increase. The first notice must be provided between 210 and 180 days before the rent increase is to take effect. A second reminder notice must be provided between 120 and 90 days before the rent increase is to take effect.~~

~~3. This section shall not apply to an administrator of a rental subsidy when the administrator is notifying the tenant of a change in the tenant’s portion of the total rent and the remaining portion of the rent is paid by subsidy such as a housing voucher.~~

~~4.~~ 1. At any time after receiving ~~the a~~ 180-day notice of a rent increase of 5 percent% or more, a tenant deciding to relocate rather than paying the rent increase may send the landlord a request for relocation assistance. Within 30 days of receiving such request, landlords must pay the relocation assistance to tenant. Payment of relocation assistance shall be per dwelling unit, not per person, and shall be split evenly among all the tenants.

~~5.~~ 2. The tenant relocation assistance amounts shall be equal to two months of rent. However, if the notified rent increase is over 7.5 percent%, the relocation assistance shall be equal to two and a half months of rent, and if the notified rent increase is over 10 percent%, the relocation assistance shall be equal to three months of rent. This scale is adopted in recognition of the additional time required to find replacement housing when a tenant’s current rent is below market rate. Tenant relocation assistance shall be calculated based upon the rent in effect at the time of the ~~180-day~~ rent increase notice.

63. Landlords shall provide copies of the request for relocation assistance and confirmation of payment to the Landlord-Tenant Coordinator or other city designated official.

74. In the event that the tenant is unable to relocate and remains in the dwelling unit at the increased rent, the tenant must repay the relocation assistance.

85. The requirement to pay tenant relocation assistance will not apply to:
