COMMENTS AND COMMITTEE REPORTS OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Neighborhoods and Housing Committee

Council Member Walker reported at the October 6, 2014 meeting, the Committee heard a presentation on encampment monitoring and site hardening, including work to develop strategies to safely and efficiently clean and monitor encampments; and a presentation on the Minimum Building and Structure Codes with revised language.

She then stated on October 20, 2014, the Committee heard an overview of nominations to the Tacoma Register of Historic Places, an update on the implementation of the Mental Health - Positive Interactions Business Outreach Program to address community blight, and finally an informational update regarding garage sale policies and procedures. She reported the next meeting is scheduled for November 3, 2014 and will include interviews for the Tacoma Community Redevelopment Authority and a presentation on the rapid graffiti removal evaluation and recommendation.

* * * * *

Deputy Mayor Woodards stated there are lots of activities happening for Domestic Violence Month, including wrapping up the courage initiative at a silent rally in Tollefson Plaza on Friday to include a moment of silence in honor of those who have been victims of domestic violence. She noted it is an epidemic and the only way to stop it is to raise awareness.

Council Member Boe reminded everyone to change their clocks for daylight savings time, and encouraged everyone to change the batteries in smoke alarms and teach children about smoke alarms. He then provided information on upcoming events in Tacoma, including the last day of the Broadway Farmers' Market; the Proctor Farmers' Market; and Proctor Treats.

Mayor Strickland stated election day is next week and reminded everyone to vote. She stated the Council put forth 12 potential amendments to the City Charter, and asked everyone to read the voters' pamphlet thoroughly and make thoughtful and informed decisions.

ADJOURNMENT

On proper motion, the meeting was adjourned at 6:02 p.m.

Marilyn Strickland, Mayor

Doris Sorum, City Clerk
