

Facility includes personal property, other than real estate, consisting of decade's year old office and shop furniture, old and worn out railroad track materials, antiquated inoperable railroad equipment, and other obsolete railroad appurtenances that were present at the time the City acquired the TRMW railroad in 1995.