I ask for your support for the inclusion of the following item on the agenda at the earliest available meeting of the Study Session:

I respectfully request City Council concurrence to direct the City Manager to allocate $20,000 from the City Council Contingency Fund to support the 2018 season of the Tacoma Refugee Choir.

BRIEF BACKGROUND:

The Tacoma Refugee Choir (formally known as the Refugee Choir Project, a Washington non-profit corporation) builds community through music with a special emphasis on welcoming refugees. With the rapid rise in xenophobia and anti-refugee sentiment, there is an urgent need to combat hatred with positive and meaningful interactions amongst community members. The Tacoma Refugee Choir seeks to use music as a tool to support our most vulnerable residents, and educate and encourage actions of compassion and kindness between people of diverse backgrounds, beliefs, ethnicities, and languages as part of creating a more welcoming Tacoma community.

In their first season, the Tacoma Refugee Choir welcomed to their weekly practice sessions more than 150 participants from 24 countries, including Iraq, Ukraine, Vietnam, and DR Congo. They established non-profit status and engaged the support of a diverse all-star cast of Tacoma-area recording artists to deliver their message broadly through their first recorded song. They performed twelve public events, including WE Day for Tacoma School District 7th graders, a full-length Community Sing-along featuring Grammy winner Wanz and The Voice's Stephanie Anne Johnson, and a performance and talk at TEDxSeattle (2:40-18:50) on November 18. Audience members described their Community Sing-along as "music, community building, social activism, and entertainment all in one," and one choir rehearsal attendee said, "I've been in the U.S. for four months and never felt welcomed until today."

Their second season seeks to build on the success of their inaugural season to uplift, inspire and unite through the transformative power of music. Their plans include three fully-produced events:

Tacoma Sings at Urban Grace Church (March 10, 2018)

This high-energy community sing-along event first held in November 2017 and features live band, professional lighting and sound, local recording artists, and the Tacoma Refugee Choir. Highly interactive and engaging, attendees will unite in song and celebrate the contributions of all members of our community. Sponsorships will allow free general admission for 750 people at this event.

Refugees: Their Story is Our Story (May 12, 2018)

This fully produced event will focus on refugee stories through video, song and art. Featuring performances by the Tacoma Refugee Choir and refugee recording artists, attendees will gain perspective on the refugee experience both locally and internationally and be encouraged to do their part to make Tacoma a more welcoming place.

Your Voice Matters (November 2018 TBD)

This high-energy production emphasizes the value of all voices in our community and the importance of using our voice for good. Food and activities will add to the festival format of this concert/sing-along. Featuring prominent guest artists and the Tacoma Refugee Choir. The Tacoma Refugee Choir has invited incoming Mayor Woodards to be a featured song-leader at this event.
