

Exhibit C

Capital Cost Recovery Charges

Beginning in 2015, every Participating City other than the City of Seattle will pay a yearly Capital Cost Recovery Charge to the Portal Agency which in turn will remit the annual total of such Charges paid to the City of Seattle. The Charges will remain in place until the total amount of $1,400,000 has been remitted to Seattle.

The Executive Board shall determine the timing for payment of the Capital Cost Recovery Charges.

Each Participating City's Capital Cost Recovery Charge will be determined based on the number of Transactions allocated to such City in the budget year in which the Charge will be collected, and in accordance with the following table:

Category:	Smallest City	Smaller City	Small City	Medium City	Large City
Transaction Count allocated to the City in the budget year	< 1000	1001 - 4000	4,001 to 14,400	14,401 to 31,000	>31,001
Capital Cost Recovery Charge payable annually	$500	$1000	$2000	$4000	$6000
