Council Member Beale addressed comments from the public hearing related to the climate emergency, existing fossil fuels, and the Tideflats Interim Regulations; and concluded by stating his vision is to fulfill the data requests that were proposed a year ago and to use that data study to help form the development of permanent regulations.

Council Member Hunter addressed comments from the public hearing in regards to the Tideflats Interim Regulations process, and spoke about the role of the Subarea Plan, and encouraged for anyone interested in getting involved with or to receive information on the Subarea Plan, to do a search of "City of Tacoma Tideflats Subarea Plan" to find a webpage with more information. She concluded by encouraging everyone to start engaging, promoting, and working with the City, which could help the City motivate all of the stakeholders in working collaboratively and moving the Subarea Plan.

Council Member Hines thanked attendees for participating in the public hearing and informed everyone that a Town Hall will be held on October 7, 2020, regarding the proposed 6th Avenue and Orchard Street micro-shelter site and for anyone interested to email him directly or participate in the Town Hall.

Council Member Thoms thanked attendees for comments and stated that he hopes the Subarea Plan process will be completed within 24 months, and that he supports funding the baseline data project to help inform the Tideflats Interim Regulations. He concluded by honoring Tacoma resident Mr. Aaron Grissom, who recently passed away, and shared memories of Mr. Grissom.

Mayor Woodards informed everyone that the public viewing for former Mayor Harold Moss will be at Mountain View Funeral Home on Wednesday, September 30, 2020, at 10:00 a.m., and anyone interested in attending the service should email mayorharoldmoss@gmail.com. She concluded by stating COVID-19 is still here and that Tacoma and Pierce County continue to do an amazing job at keeping case counts down and asked everyone to wash their hands, social distance, and wear their masks.

ADJOURNMENT

On proper motion, the meeting was adjourned at 6:44 p.m.

Victoria R. Woodards, Mayor

Doris Sorum, City Clerk
