7. Discussion/Updates

a. JEDI Subcommittee Update (01:22:32)

The JEDI Subcommittee met on November 8. This is a Commission-led ongoing subcommittee. With light attendance and unclear direction, the subcommittee needs either a restructure or recommitment process. In response to this and to past conversations about integrating JEDI practices directly into the Commission's standards instead of a separate subcommittee, Commissioner Gilmore shared that she drafted a document that starts to outline a process for this with the aim to move beyond conversation and into actionable changes as efficiently as possible. Commissioners who are interested in collaborating on this were invited to join the next JEDI Subcommittee meeting on December 13.
