BRIEFING ITEMS

City Manager's Office

- 6:07pm – Executive Liaison Tanisha Jumper updated that there is work happening around Reconciliation in partnership with the National Network of Safe Cities and described the Police Transformation worked detailed in the KUMU tool on the City website.

Tacoma Police Department

- 6:11pm – Chief Moore introduced himself and introduced the new Deputy Chief Paul Junger, Chief of Staff Curtis Harriston, Assistant Chief Tammy Floyd. Another Assistant Chief and Director of Community Relationships will also start in the coming months.
- 6:16pm – Chief Moore explained the first train-the-trained Procedural Justice class the department put on.
- 6:18pm – Chief Moore took questions from committee members.

Council Member Rumbaugh Introduction

- 6:29 – CM Rumbaugh introduced herself, explained her District boundaries, stated that the Community Vitality & Safety committee members are visiting the City commissions that they oversee, hence her visit tonight.
- 6:35pm – CM Rumbaugh took questions from committee members.

Priscilla Lisicich – CEO of Safe Streets

- 6:38 – Priscilla spoke to the history of Safe Streets, and their mission and vision
- 6:48 – Described their initiative “Strengthening Community Safety.” Will host focus groups and listening sessions to gauge what safety means to community members to gauge where gaps exist. Offering incentive grants to six community organizations to bring people together to host these groups.

Old Business

- 7:00pm – Chair Hagberg, gave an update on the Reconciliation Symposium. Next steps are listening sessions are over the next several months. The dates will soon be published.
- 7:02pm – Adrian gave an update on the Oversight Community outreach. The plan is to make a video, present it on City and TPD social media, and then publish a poll to gauge what type of oversight community members would like to see. In-person meeting still possible, but perhaps after initial social media outreach.
