4. Presentations

A. Prairie Line Trail Design

5:05 pm (04:22)

Chris Storey and Alan McWain presented the design plans for Phase I and Phase II of the Prairie Line Trail that the City owns. The design pulls ques from the University of Washington Tacoma portion of the trail. Public art and historical signage will happen separately through a heritage grant.

Phase I – Dock Street to S. 17th & Pacific Avenue. Design is complete with a goal to start construction in early 2016.

Phase II – S. 21st to S. 25th Street. Design will be complete by October but there is no construction funding at this time. The current estimated cost is $4.6 million for this portion of the trail.

There will be an open house regarding the plans on September 15, 4:30 pm at UW Tacoma.

Commissioners discussed, gave input, and asked clarifying questions.

5. Action Items

A. 2016 Arts Projects Guidelines

5:47 pm (46:23)

Commissioners reviewed the proposed edits to the 2016 Arts Projects funding guidelines including the addition of a budget line for volunteer time.

Commissioner Cardwell suggested adding the national standard of volunteer hours to the application so applicants can calculate value of volunteer time.

There was a motion: “I would motion that we accept what we have with the adjustments that you are making.”

Motion: Dane Meyer
Second: Katrina Toft
Motion: Carried

6. Discussion/Updates

A. Tacoma Arts Month – Updates and Sign-Ups

5:53 pm (52:04)

Commissioners reviewed two print pieces for Tacoma Arts Month and the updated Tacoma Arts Month website (TacomaArtsMonth.com).

Vice Chair Meyer and Commissioners Thompson, Cardwell, Knigge, Sweney, Toft, Conklin, Lacky, Kandi, Throne, Hudgins, and Campbell volunteered to help distribute Tacoma Arts Month marketing materials.

The Arts and Cultural Coalition of Pierce County is sponsoring the Tacoma Arts Month Challenge to encourage attendance to multiple events.

Promotional efforts are being conducted through Click!, Tacoma Weekly, Weekly Volcano, Northwest Public Radio, KPLU, ARCADE magazine, South Sound magazine, Facebook boosts, PeachJar flyers with Tacoma Public Schools, and twice-weekly e-newsletters, among other things.

The Opening Party will be October 1, 6 - 9 pm, at the Tacoma Armory. The event will have a line-up of music and dance performances, poetry, visual art exhibits, information booths, hands-on art project with 3 Square Blocks, and other entertainment. It is being hosted in collaboration with Spaceworks Tacoma. Chair Kelly, Vice Chair Meyer, and Commissioners Kandi, Toft, Lacky, Hudgins, Wilmot-Stenehjem, Conklin, Throne, Campbell, Cardwell, and Sweney volunteered to assist with the event.

B. Art Plan Updates

6:14 pm (01:13:00)

Amy McBride shared the notes from the focus group 3 Square Blocks conducted with the Commission at the August 10 meeting. They will also be gathering information from Arts Program staff as well as from public at the Tacoma Arts Month Opening Party. Additional invitation-only focus groups will be conducted on October 5, 7, and 13. Three Square Blocks will report back to the Commission at the November 9 meeting.

C. Public Art Updates

6:17 pm (01:16:28)

Lincoln District Revitalization – 25 applications were received. This project has a $210,000 budget to include gateway public art and community outreach. The selection panel will meet in October.

South Tacoma – There will be two projects: one is an $110,000 project for the business district streetscape, funded through a State Farm grant. The other is a $100,000 project for the Water Flume Line Trail. Panelists are needed.

Prairie Line Trail Spur – Susan Zoccola was selected for this project.

Thea Foss Waterway Esplanade – Ed Kroupa's artwork dedication will be on October 15, 5 pm.

Bay Terrace/Tacoma Housing Authority – Christopher Jordan and Kenji Stoll have started work with the youth residents at Bay Terrace for their public art project.

Metro Parks Tacoma – Staff is working on developing a Public Art Plan for Metro Parks Tacoma.

Sound Transit – Sean Orlando and David Shulman are working on the design and safety considerations for the D to M Street Gateway project. Jeremy Mangan was selected for the Sound Transit Trestle project.

Portable Works – 213 applications/1141 pieces of artwork were received for consideration and 60 finalists/116 pieces of artwork were selected for a second round of review on November 3.

Traffic Box Wrap Project – Commissioners viewed the 20 final artwork designs for the traffic box wraps.

Commissioners discussed projects and asked clarifying questions.

D. Commission Executive Committee Nominations 6:48 pm (01:47:43)
