There was no unfinished business.

REPORTS BY THE CITY MANAGER

City Manager Elizabeth Pauli shared the success of the 14th Annual South Sound Sustainability Expo, noting over 70 environmentally focused organizations and 1,500 community members attending on Saturday, April 16, 2022, from the Tollefson Plaza to the Prairie Line Trail on the University of Washington Tacoma (UWT) campus; and expressed appreciation to the City's Office of Environmental Policy and Sustainability. She concluded by sharing information that the Tacoma Police Department released regarding a jury duty warrant scam, noting that no government agency accepts money through Zelle, gift cards, or other methods in lieu of cash, check, or charge in their official capacity; and that the scam entails telling people that they have missed their jury duty calls and that there is a warrant for their arrest.

COMMENTS AND COMMITTEE REPORTS OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Community Vitality and Safety Committee

Deputy Mayor Ushka, Chair of the Community Vitality and Safety (CVS) Committee, reported at the March 24, 2022, meeting, the Committee received a presentation on the 2022-2023 Annual Action Plan for housing and community development and concluded the discussion on a recommendation to the full City Council regarding camping on public property; and on April 14, 2022, the Committee conducted interviews for the Commission on Immigrant and Refugee Affairs (CIRA). She continued by stating CVS Committee members have begun attending the meetings of the six committees, boards, and commissions that are overseen by the CVS Committee on a quarterly basis, noting she attended the March meeting of the Tacoma Area Commission on Disabilities (TACOD), where they heard a presentation on a feasibility study to create an accessible transportation model for people with disabilities in Tacoma, and that TACOD also sent a letter regarding concerns related to having non-law enforcement persons respond for mental health issues; Council Member Blocker attended the March meeting of the Tacoma Community Redevelopment Authority (TCRA), where they discussed next steps for the TCRA-owned Pacific property and completed a board member orientation. She concluded by stating the next CVS Committee meeting will be held on April 21, 2022, at 4:30 p.m., through Zoom, and will include additional interviews for CIRA and a presentation on the Washington House Bill 1590 spending plan.
