Briefing Items

1. 18-0867 Six-Year Forecast/General Fund Position

At approximately 2:15 p.m., Elizabeth Pauli, City Manager, made opening remarks and introduced Katie Johnston, Budget Director, Office of Management and Budget. Ms. Johnston provided information on the 2019-2024 General Fund financial forecast, including an overview, structural gap between revenues and expenditures for the 2019-2020 Biennium Budget, projected revenues and expenditures, priority areas, and facility needs. She continued reviewing challenges and considerations, bonding, revenue alternatives, fees, and the process for voter and City Council approvals. She concluded on the budget process.

Discussion ensued regarding clarification on the new job credit, head tax, and sales tax; supporting fund implications on the General Fund; clarification on structural gap; facility needs; and the concern for any fee changes. Discussion continued on economic development, bond capacity limit, budget process and the outcome of impact fees, business and occupations tax and categories, and clarification on the elimination of gross income threshold. Discussion concluded on bullet tax.
