DIRECTOR'S REPORT

- Summer Reading Club – The Zoo party was less well attended due to wildfire smoke in the air. The Aerial Assault performance was well received.
- Libraries will be closed Tuesday, August 29. Self-check kiosks with credit card capability will be installed August 28 and 29.
- Whole Educator's Conference at Mt. Tahoma High School – Branch Manager Maria Shackles and Librarian Rhonda Kristoff will present information to TPS teachers on the Pathway Card program, as well as, information on TPL's relevant resources to support the classroom curriculum. Main Manager Beverly Choltco-Devlin and Librarian Rhonda Kristoff will host an information table.
- Administration and the City's HR staff are developing a scoring tool for the Board to use in selecting a new director
- Director Odenrantz introduced Tadd Wille, the City's new Assistant City Manager and the Library's new City liaison. Assistant City Manager Wille shared that he and the City Manager are data people. Data information is important in pre-budget conversations with the City Manager.

TRUSTEES' REPORT

Vice President Williams hopes to have close involvement with the City's strategic planning process.

Trustee Hines is excited that Library staff are presenting at the Whole Educator's Conference.
