ARTICLE XI: DISPUTE RESOLUTION

11.1 Dispute Resolution. Whenever any dispute arises between the parties under this Agreement, including any controversy or claim arising out of relating to this Agreement or any breach thereof, and including any dispute regarding an issue on which the parties are to reach further agreement, and such dispute is not resolved by routine meetings or communications, either party shall have the right to commence a resolution process by issuing written request to the other party under the terms of this Article XI, excepting only those disputes subject to equitable proceedings under paragraph 11.5, below.

11.2 Meeting of Executives. The Parties shall seek in good faith to resolve any such dispute by meeting as soon as feasible after the notice issued under paragraph 11.1 is received and reviewing the dispute in detail. The meeting shall include the authorized representatives and the chief executive officer or a board member from the Museum and the mayor or a council member from Tacoma.

11.3 Mediation. If the parties do not come to an agreement on the dispute, then either party may demand mediation through a process to be mutually agreed to in good faith between the parties within twenty (20) days, which may include binding or non-binding decisions or recommendations. The mediator(s) shall be individuals skilled in the legal and business aspects of the subject matter of this Agreement. The parties shall equally share the costs of the mediation and assume their own costs.

11.4 Arbitration. If the mediation process cannot be agreed upon within twenty (20) days, or if both parties concur within twenty (20) days in proceeding immediately to arbitration, then the dispute or concern shall be settled by arbitration before one arbitrator in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. The location of this arbitration shall be Tacoma, Washington, and its proceedings will be governed by the laws of Washington. The arbitrator shall be an individual skilled in the legal and business aspects of the subject matter or matters being disputed. The arbitrator may award costs, including attorney fees, to the prevailing party. Judgment upon award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

11.5 Equitable Relief. In the event a party desires to seek interim relief, whether affirmative or prohibitive, in the form of a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or other interim equitable relief with respect to a dispute or coordination concern either before or after the initiation of a dispute resolution proceeding, that party may initiate the proceeding necessary to obtain such relief ("Equitable Proceeding"). Nothing in this paragraph 11.5 shall be construed to suspend or terminate the obligation of the parties to comply with the procedures set forth in this Article XI with respect to the dispute that is the subject of such Equitable Proceeding while such Equitable Proceeding is pending, including any appeal or review. Notwithstanding the determination of an arbitrator, any interim relief granted by such Equitable Proceeding shall not be reversed or modified by the arbitrator's determination, and any factual or legal determination made in such Equitable Proceeding shall be binding upon the parties in the dispute before the arbitrator.

11.6 Settlement or Decision Disputes. The parties agree that any disputes which arise during the implementation of any settlement or arbitrator's determination shall be resolved exclusively by the procedures set forth in this Article XI.

ARTICLE XII: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

or parties may require. The parties hereby acknowledge and agree that each was properly represented by counsel and this Agreement was negotiated and drafted at arm's length so that the judicial rule of construction to the effect that a legal document shall be construed against the draftsman shall be inapplicable to this Agreement.

12.6 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

12.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and any collateral instruments referenced herein contain the entire agreement between the parties hereto and shall not be modified or amended in any manner except by an instrument in writing executed by the parties hereto. Previous drafts of this Agreement or any portions thereof shall not be utilized in any manner by either party should any dispute arise as to the intent of this Agreement.

12.8 No Waiver. The waiver by one party of the performance of any covenant, condition, or promise shall not invalidate this Agreement nor shall it be considered a waiver by such party of any other covenant, condition, or promise hereunder. The waiver by either or both parties of the time for performing any act shall not constitute a waiver of the time for performing any other act or an identical act required to be performed at a later time. The exercise of any remedy provided by law or the provisions of this Agreement shall not exclude other consistent remedies unless they are expressly excluded.

12.9 Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall, to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby and shall continue in full force and effect.
