COUNCIL CONSIDERATION REQUEST (CCR)

TO: Deputy Mayor & City Council
FROM: Mayor Victoria Woodards and Chief Policy Analyst Melanie Harding
COPIES TO: Elizabeth Pauli, City Manager; Tadd Wille, Assistant City Manager; Bill Fosbre, City Attorney; Executive Leadership Team; File
SUBJECT: Council Contingency Request: $6,500 to provide Tacoma residents with tools to address and manage the impacts of exploitation and sexual assault
DATE: November 7, 2018

ITEM/ISSUE PROPOSED FOR COUNCIL CONSIDERATION:

Councilmember Ushka, Councilmember Hunter, and I ask for your support for the inclusion of the following item on the agenda at the earliest available meeting of the Study Session:

Consideration of a Council Contingency Request of $6,500 to provide Tacoma residents with tools to address and manage the impacts of exploitation and sexual assault and direct staff to negotiate a contract with non-profit organization Rock, Paper, Scissors to provide the services described below.

BRIEF BACKGROUND:

The “Me Too” Movement, founded in 2006 by Tarana Burke, was created to address both the lack of resources for survivors of sexual violence and to build a community of advocates, driven by survivors, at the forefront of creating solutions that interrupt the sexual violence happening in their communities. The Me Too Movement became part of the national dialogue last October, when the related hashtag (#metoo) went viral, accompanied by the stories of women coming forward to share their stories of sexual harassment, violence, and assault. Since that time, the news has continued to be punctuated by stories of sexual assault and harassment at local, state, and national levels.

The Council Contingency Requests for $6,500 would be allocated according to a proposal provided by the City Manager and Neighborhood and Community Services Director. The funding would provide up to 100 Tacoma residents with tools to address and manage the impacts of exploitation and sexual assault through a community event which will:

- Specifically target women who have dealt with sexual assault on the job, in the military, in school, or in church;
- Connect women, including survivors, in dialogue on prevention, intervention, and overcoming sexual assault;
- Provide access to community experts, such as psychologist, medical doctors, legal professionals, counselors, advocates, and survivors through panel discussion;
- Provide attendees with sexual assault and human trafficking resource guides and book; and
- Teach participants what to do when assault and abuse occur and how to manage the impacts.

We hope these dollars will begin to address the lack of resources available, acknowledge the deep impact that these traumatic events have on the lives of Tacoma residents, and provide support for residents who have experienced sexual assault or harassment. Additional information is outlined in the attached memorandum from staff.

STRATEGIC POLICY PRIORITY:

- Strengthen and support a safe city with healthy residents.
- Ensure all Tacoma residents are valued and have access to resources to meet their needs.
- Encourage thriving residents with abundant opportunities for life-long learning.

FROM: Linda Stewart, Director
SUBJECT: Council Contingency Funding Request for Exploitation and Sexual Assault Programming
DATE: October 26, 2018

Councilmember Ushka requested during the 10/16/18 City Council meeting that staff prepare information to support her request for funding that addresses the national concern around exploitation and sexual assault, and prepares Tacoma residents with tools to address inappropriate behavior.

Staff recommends the following proposal from Rock, Paper, Scissors, a non-profit organization. Upon your review and approval, staff will begin to negotiate the contract using Council Contingency funding.

Overview

Human Trafficking and Sexual Assault Awareness Event specifically targeting victims who have dealt with sexual assault on the job such as the military, the school system, and in the church. Rock, Paper, Scissors will teach participants what to do when an assault or abuse happens (prevention and intervention) and how to manage the impacts.

Goal

According to <http://www.sexualassaultcenter.com/victims-survivors/> 1 out of 3 women report being sexually assaulted. Through the awareness event, Rock, Paper, Scissors proposes to reduce these statistics by providing prevention through awareness, as well as providing resources for those who have experienced this trauma.

Target population is 75-100 women to gather and increase awareness and action around the issue of sexual assault and human trafficking. The dialogue will be around prevention, intervention and overcoming sexual assault/human trafficking. The women present will consist of sexual assault survivors/ and or advocates that have a heart for targeting sexual assault/abuse.

Rock, Paper, Scissors will market to: 1) local businesses that support this topic or who want to get more involved, 2) local Colleges (UWT, UPS, TCC), 3) resource centers, 4) sexual assault centers, 5) Crystal Judson Family Justice Center, 7) transitional housing, 8) shelters, and 9) churches. Rock, Paper, Scissors will pass out flyers, and use email and social media to RPS@rockpaperscissorsfoundation.org.

Rock, Paper, Scissors has handpicked phenomenal speakers and a dynamic panel made up of community experts; a psychologist, a doctor, and survivors of human trafficking and sexual assault.

The women attending, will not only be equipped and empowered but will receive the tools necessary to help transform their trauma and losses into personal growth, healing and a renewed sense of purpose.
