

ti šəgwł ti PuPuxwtub Pə tiił tuyəl'yəlabcəl

The Path Our Ancestors Took

- » Our people have lived in villages along the Salish Sea and the foothills of Takobud (Mt. Rainier) for thousands of years.
- » Then, as now, we existed by the bounty of the Creator: salmon, shellfish, wild game, roots, berries.
- » We keep our ancestors' values alive by practicing our culture every day.

unes and vanas, and any anmorezed by men.

art. I The said tibes and bands of Indians hardy and intimenish and country occur follows, to wit:

- » Medicine Creek Treaty: Signed in 1854 by Puyallup leaders and Governor Isaac Stevens before Washington was a state.
- » Fish-ins & the Boldt Decision: We have always fought to protect our right to fish.
- The Puyallup Land Claims Settlement: In 1988, federal, state, and local authorities entered into an agreement with the tribe that remains the secondlargest Native land resolution in history. More than 900 acres were returned to the Puyallup people, in part setting the stage for today's economic self-determination.

Known as Wilker' portage to Point Southworth on the western side of admirally Inlet, thence around the foot of Vashon's Island

Puyallup Tribe: A Sovereign Nation

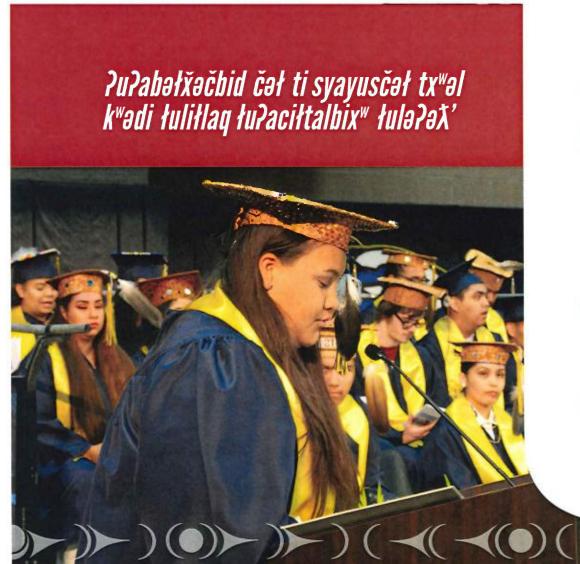

We're a sovereign nation of more than 5,000 members, many of whom live on or near the 30 square miles of our reservation.

Our seven-member Tribal Council is committed to the well-being and prosperity of the Puyallup people

PuPiPabildubut ti spuyaləpabš

Our government provides 63 service programs, including:

- » Education support
- » Health and well-being
- » Affordable Housing
- » Planning and community development
- » Natural Resource Protection
- » Business Development Investments
- » Cultural Protection
- » Law Enforcement and Courts

Our Commitment to the Next Generation

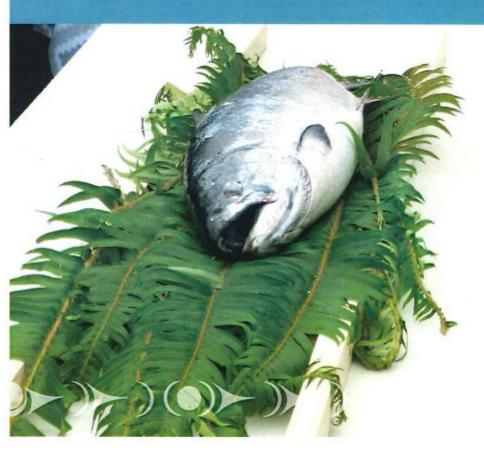

We foster learning that is rigorous, culturally appropriate, and rooted in Puyallup tradition.

- » Grandview Early Learning Center provides childhood care for more than 200 Native children.
- » Chief Leschi School teaches more than 750 students, representing more than 60 different tribes.

tul'al ti swatxwixwtxwəd tiił bək'w stab dəxw?ušəqədčəł ti bək'w stab

Protecting Our Natural Resources

- » We operate three hatcheries that annually produce more than 5 million spring and fall chinook, coho, chum, and steelhead salmon in the Puget Sound watershed.
- » We've supported healthy habitat for wildlife and salmon with wetland and stream mitigation projects on Boise Creek, Wapato Creek, Clarks Creek, Wilkeson Creek, and Skookum Wuldge.

Pəsxid ti dəx"PuPiPabilcəl

Our Economic Impact

New ventures and partnerships have allowed us to play an expanded role in the local and regional economy.

- The Tribe and its subsidiaries are collectively the sixth largest employer in Pierce County, with a total workforce of 3,400.
- Our largest business, the Emerald Queen Casino, has provided benefits to our members and the local economy.
- » Our new casino expansion will create over 100 new jobs and $1.5 billion in economic impact over 10 years.

Giving is our Tradition, Giving is our Culture.

tes sulalasus it es "Ailadas

Puyallup Tribe of Indians

3009 Portland Ave E, Tacoma, WA 98404 www.puyallup-tribe.com (253) 573-7800