DATE: March 28, 2019

ITEM/ISSUE PROPOSED FOR COUNCIL CONSIDERATION:

I ask for your support for the inclusion of the following item on the agenda at the earliest available meeting of the Study Session:

I respectfully request City Council concurrence to direct the City Manager to allocate $10,000 from the City Council Contingency Fund to support the 2019 Tacoma Reads Together events.

BRIEF BACKGROUND:

“Tacoma Reads” is our local community reads program, where the larger community is encouraged to read, think, and discuss compelling and meaningful themes from a single book. The City works with Tacoma Public Library to develop programming and bring the author to Tacoma for a book reading, discussion and book signing. This year, in partnership with the Puyallup Tribe, we will be bringing award-winning author Tommy Orange to Tacoma this fall to discuss his bestselling and award-winning novel “There, There”.

This book touches on the concept of identity and how people’s lives are shaped by history, the passage of time and the impacts of trauma, poverty, and urban life. It was written by a Native American author who weaves the brutal history of American’s first nations through the stories of modern-day, city-dwelling indigenous people. Tacoma Public Library will work with the Mayor’s office, the Puyallup Tribe, and members of the Mayor’s Youth Task Force to plan rich and educational programming and make the book available in a wide variety of formats.

The total funding package for 2019 programming is $55,000, with $10,000 from Council Contingency, $20,000 from Tacoma Public Library, and $25,000 from the Puyallup Tribe of Indians.
