PRESENTATION TYPE:
Informational Briefing

SUMMARY:

On October 8, 2020 a presentation led by CPAC members will review their accomplishments from 2019 and 2020 so far, and support that they will need from the City Council going forward.

BACKGROUND:

Committees, boards, and commissions of the City regularly provide updates to the council committee that oversees them. Due to COVID-19 this year, the regular annual report from CPAC was delayed. The report

ISSUE:

The Community's Police Advisory Committee has been more engaged this year than in past years by the City Council due to the changing community focus on police reform and transformation. As a part of these conversations, CPAC wants to keep the City Council updated on their work and the need for support to make reform efforts stronger.
