3. 23-0091 State Auditor's Office 2021 Exit Conference - Federal and Accountability Audit [Susan Calderon, Assistant Director/Controller, Finance]

At approximately 10:06 a.m., Susan Calderon, Assistant Director, Finance, provided opening remarks on the 2021 exit conference on the federal and accountability audit; and introduced Saundra Groshong, Audit Manager, State Auditor's Office (SAO). Groshong introduced Wolsey Bradley, Audit Lead, SAO; and presented on results that matter. Bradley reviewed the accountability audit results, including the fiscal year, purpose, use of a risk-based approach when examining various areas within the City, and a management letter on cash receipting and credit card usage; federal grant compliance audit results, noting the fiscal year, adverse and unmodified opinions, and internal control and compliance over major programs; major programs selected for audit; and single audit findings, noting areas of concern and recommendations for compliance with federal subrecipient monitoring requirements, federal requirements for suspension and debarment and subrecipient monitoring, and federal suspension and debarment requirements. Groshong concluded by providing closing remarks, reviewing report publication, and expressing appreciation for City staff.

Discussion ensued regarding the granting process, repeat findings for the following year, the availability of SAO staff to answer questions throughout the year, the single audit findings for suspension and debarment monitoring and requirements, subrecipient versus contractor, if the testing indicated improprieties in expenditures of the subrecipients, if the same individuals that handle Community Development Block Grant funds are working on some of the other subrecipient grants, the status of the 2022 audit, Tacoma Public Utilities' employee recognition programs, the amount spent on the employee recognition program, and consolidation of all of the employee recognition programs.
