4. 23-0490 Community Safety Plan Update
[Jacques Colon, Chief Strategy Officer, Office of Strategy]

At approximately 5:02 p.m., Jacques Colon, Chief Strategy Officer, Office of Strategy, presented an update on the City's Community Safety Plan (CSP), including an agenda; purpose, noting what makes people feel safe and the need for a more coordinated approach; and scope, noting venues where the City gathered feedback from the community. He further detailed the CSP scope, including social, economic, and environmental conditions; prevention efforts with priority populations; alternative responses; improving and transforming public safety departments; and off-ramps, noting diversion, restorative justice, and reintegration. He continued by reviewing next steps and a timeline; the CSP community engagement process; examples of implementation models, noting the City's Affordable Housing Action Strategy for internal groups and the Newark Public Safety Collaborative for external coordination; and questions related to plan development, noting data and research, engagement and coordination, and outcomes and implementation.

Discussion ensued regarding the approach, scope, and complexity of the CSP; next steps, noting possible actions and goals; the action strategy framework; highlighting the disproportionate impacts on people of color; data sources; outreach and the purpose of engagement; and a request for information to be provided in other formats and languages.
