Neighborhood Council Program Review

[Carol Wolfe, Supervisor, Community and Economic Development]

At approximately 5:30 p.m., Chair Blocker called on Carol Wolfe, Supervisor, Community and Economic Development, to share the five-year annual review of the Neighborhood Council Program. Ms. Wolfe stated the Municipal Code mandates a review and, if necessary, revisions by the City Council of the Neighborhood Council Program at least every five years. She stated she also shared with the Community Council of Tacoma their opportunity to conduct their own review of the Neighborhood Council Program. Ms. Wolfe then shared some of the changes to the program beginning in 2012 to present which included: the elimination of a dedicated Neighborhood Council Coordinator position, the 2013-2014 biennium reset, including the creation of the Planning and Development Services and Neighborhoods and Community Services Departments, Public Works reorganization and the expansion of community-based services citywide as well as the Innovative Grant funding moving to the General Fund. She continued by stating the Neighborhood Council Liaisons are a function of the City Manager's Office and the Community Council Liaison and Program Coordinator are a function of Community and Economic Development Department.

Discussion ensued regarding how the changes are working.

Ms. Wolfe discussed the Standards and Guidelines document which was created for program guidelines. She continued by reviewing the issues and opportunities for review and consideration which included: Office of Equity and Human Rights was established, Vision 2025 was adopted, the Comprehensive Planning process was updated and simplified; and the involvement of the Port of Tacoma, the Health Department, the School District and Metro Parks. Ms. Wolfe reviewed the language in Municipal Code Sections 1.45.040 Neighborhood and Council Functions and Responsibilities and 1.45.050 Neighborhood Council Boundaries and Membership.

Discussion ensued regarding the meaning of some of the language, enforcement and Neighborhood Council boundaries, and the effectiveness of outreach to Neighborhood Councils.

Ms. Wolfe then discussed the outreach for the review of the program including: updating the Community Council, surveying existing Neighborhood Council Board members, liaisons, innovative grant applicants, independent neighborhood groups, and community engagement partners. She stated that there will be participation in the Livable City Year project and online and social media surveys.

Discussion ensued regarding the definition of Neighborhood Council Liaisons.

Ms. Wolfe concluded her presentation with a review of the proposed timeline.
