Briefing Items

1. 18-0506 Six-Year Financial Forecast

At approximately 12:10 p.m., Katie Johnston, Budget Manager, Office of Management and Budget, made opening remarks and provided the Six-Year Financial Forecast for the General Fund and other significant funds in the General Government, including creating a good budget and the long range forecast.

Council Member Blocker arrived here, at 12:12 p.m.

Ms. Johnston reviewed the budget process; General Fund revenues, including all General Fund and major General Fund revenues; General Fund expenses, noting expenditure assumptions, total General Fund expenses, and personnel, maintenance and operations, fixed costs, and debt service. She further reviewed the General Fund forecast, noting average percent growth of revenue and expense and an updated General Fund forecast; and considerations, including related special revenue trends, enterprise funds, asset management, other considerations, priority areas, and the 2019-2020 projection. Ms. Johnston concluded on alternatives, noting considerations on taxes, fees, and debt; revenue alternatives; and the budget process.

Discussion ensued regarding revenue alternatives, asset management, revenue projections, and expenditure assumptions.
